Parts of Mandatory Evacuation Area Being Lifted

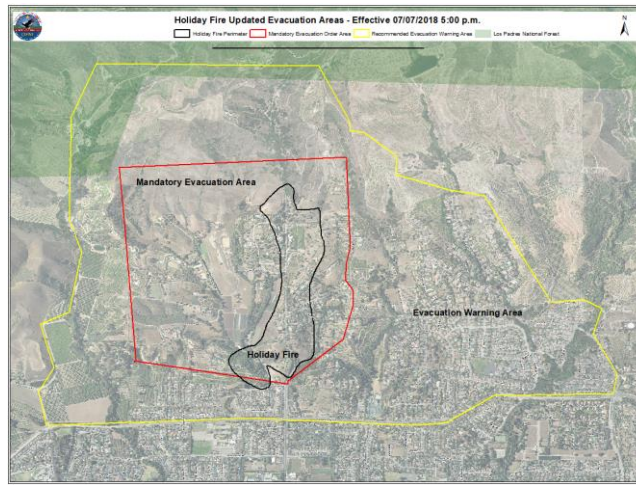

(SANTA BARBARA, Calif.) – Effective 5 p.m., some areas under mandatory evacuation will be downgraded to an evacuation warning status.

The neighborhoods accessed from North Fairview north of the intersection of North La Goleta will remain under mandatory evacuation order, including:

- Sunset Ridge Rd
- Franklin Ranch Rd
- North parts of La Goleta Rd
- North Fairview, north of La Goleta Rd
- El Camino Ratel
- Holiday Hill Rd
- Villa Lemora
- Cuesta Verde
- Edward Pl
- Pine Tree Ln

All other areas currently under a mandatory evacuation order will be downgraded to an evacuation warning; residents in this area may return home beginning at 5 p.m. This includes areas accessed off of the following roads:

- La Patera Ln
- Carlo Dr
- Santa Margarita Dr
- Hidden Ln
- Cambridge Dr
- Dorado Dr
- N. Kellogg Ave
- Avenida Pequena
- N. Patterson Ave

Fire and law enforcement commanders changed the status of the mandatory evacuation area primarily due to improving weather conditions and improving fire containment. People living in the new evacuation warning area must be prepared to leave the area immediately should conditions change. Law enforcement and fire personnel will remain in the area through the night. Firefighters will continue to do aggressive mop-up of hot spots in the impacted area.

The evacuation center remains open at the Goleta Valley Community Center located at 5679 Hollister Ave. Small animals may go to the Humane Society or Animal Shelter at 5473 Overpass Road and large animals may go to Earl Warren Showgrounds. The animal service hotline is (805) 681-4332.
